I am listener and supporter of Airl radio in Portland, OR. It is my oasis in the radioland zoo of commercials and shockjocks. It provides a positive alternative and a true ministry of service to our community. The support offered by Airl and its staff has actually saved the life of someone contemplating suicide here. Please allow them to continue their broadcasts on the regular FM channels they have been using in Portland. It could save more lives!